

posed of Woodsboro', Creagerstown and Emmittsburg districts, which shall elect three justices of the levy court. CHAP. 261.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the voters in each levy court district in said county, who shall be qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly, and shall have resided six months in said levy court district, in which they shall offer to vote, shall be entitled to vote for as many persons in said district, as justices of the levy court for said county, as hereinbefore assigned for such district, and the persons who shall receive the largest number of legal votes given in their levy court district, according to the assessment aforesaid, of justices of said court for the district aforesaid, shall be declared duly elected justices of the levy court of Frederick county, for said levy court district. Qualification of voters

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That an election for justices of the levy court of Frederick county, shall be held in the several levy court districts of said county, on the first Wednesday of October, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, and annually thereafter, at the usual places, in the same manner, according to the general election laws, and by the same judges who may hold elections for delegates to the General Assembly, and the said judges holding said elections, shall, within three days after said election, make returns as usual in other elections, to the clerk of Frederick county court, to be by him recorded in his office, and a certified copy thereof, shall be furnished to the justices of said court, at the first meeting which a majority of them may attend, on or after the first Monday of November next, after said election. Persons elected

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That in the case of a vacancy by the death, resignation, refusal to act, removal from the district, or by a tie among two or more, at said elections, a new election shall be held in the proper levy court district, to supply the vacancy; the election judges, or any of them, in said district, first giving ten days notice of such new election, in one or more newspapers of the county, and by handbills put up at public places in said district; and said elections shall be held and regulated, as the first election is directed to be by this act. Election Oct. 1839