

CHAP. 266.

Persons named may be lawful for Ann L. Emory, to bring into this State the following named slaves for life, to wit:—

George, aged about thirty-six years, Frederick, aged about thirty-three years, Delise, aged about twenty-six years, Tiney, aged about thirty years. William, aged about eight years, John, aged about four years, Wesley, aged about three years, Mary, aged about two years, Matthew, aged about four months, and Matilda, aged three months, the property of the said Ann L.

Conditions

Emory; provided, that within sixty days after such removal, the said Ann L. Emory shall cause to be recorded in the office of the clerk of Queen Ann's county court, the names of said negroes, slaves so removed; provided the said Ann L. Emory shall pay to the clerk of said county, for the use of the Maryland Colonization Society, the sums required to be paid by the first section of the act of December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter eighty-seven.

CHAPTER 265.

Passed Mar. 27, 1839. An act for the relief of the several religious denominations of Frederick County.

Exempt from tax

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the several parsonage houses of religious denominations, in Frederick county, shall hereafter be exempted from assessment for county and corporation taxes.

CHAPTER 266.

Passed Mar. 27, 1839. An act to alter a certain road in Frederick County.

Appointment of commissioners

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That the levy court of Frederick county, be and they are hereby authorised on the petition of Amos Cramer, of said county, to appoint three commissioners with authority to examine so much of the public road, running from Hobb's mill, by the Woodville school house to the public road, leading from Creagerstown to Frederick, as has recently been crea-

To examine the location