

CHAP. 302.

Claims annulled

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all right, interest and estate of either of said parties in, or to, the property, real, personal and mixed, of the other, growing out of the marriage heretofore solemnized between them be, and the same are hereby, to all intents and purposes, absolutely annulled and avoided.

CHAPTER 301.

Passed Mar. 27, 1839, An act to divorce Charles Barr, of the City of Baltimore, from his wife Margaret F. Barr.

Divorce

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Charles Barr, of the city of Baltimore, be, and he is hereby divorced, from his wife Margaret F. Barr, a vinculo matrimonii,

CHAPTER 302.

Passed Mar. 14, 1839, An act to dissolve the marriage between William Austin, and Mary his wife.

Divorce

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the marriage heretofore solemnized between the said William Austin, of Baltimore city, and his wife Mary, be, and the same is hereby, henceforth and forever annulled, dissolved and declared to be void, and the said Mary Austin shall hereafter be deprived of all right and claim which the said Mary Austin, as the wife of said William Austin, had in law to a maintenance from him in the life time of her said husband, or to any portion of his estate, real, or personal, to which she might be entitled, in the event of her surviving her said husband.

Rights annulled