

CHAPTER 303.

CHAP. 304.

An act to enlarge the powers of the High Court of Chancery, and the several County Courts, sitting as Courts of Equity, in this State.

Passed Mar. 26,
1839.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the High Court of Chancery, and the several county courts of this State, sitting as courts of equity, shall have jurisdiction in all controversies and matters of dispute, now pending, or hereafter to be instituted, between part owners of ships, vessels, schooners, or steamboats, and shall have full power and authority to decree a sale of any ship, vessel, schooner, or steamboat, held by part owners, and to apportion the proceeds thereof among the parties interested, according to their respective interests, and shall in general have, use and exercise all such jurisdiction, power and authority, as now are used and exercised by the chancery courts of this State, in cases of partnership; provided nevertheless, that the said county courts, as courts of equity, shall not hold jurisdiction in any case where the defendant, defendants, or some one of the them, is not a resident of the county where the bill is filed.

Jurisdiction given in cases of part
ownership of vessels

Provided party resides &c

CHAPTER 304.

An act to divorce Ann Hunt, of Anne Arundel County, from her husband, Henry Hunt.

Passed Mar. 28,
1839.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Ann Hunt, of Anne Arundel county, be, and she is hereby divorced, a vinculo matrimonii, from her husband, Henry Hunt.

Divorce