

full power to purchase and hold, four acres of land, for CHAP. 311.
the use and benefit of said town.

CHAPTER 310.

An act to authorize the Commissioners of Charlestown, in Cecil County, to convey to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Congregation, a lot, or parcel of land, in the Town aforesaid. Passed Mar. 25, 1839.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Authority granted
That the commissioners of Charlestown are hereby authorised to convey in fee simple to the trustees of the Presbyterian congregation, all that lot or parcel of land situate in Charlestown aforesaid, on which the Presbyterian meeting house is erected.

CHAPTER 311.

An act authorising surveys in certain suits now pending in Baltimore County Court. Passed Mar. 25, 1839.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Baltimore county court shall be, and they are hereby authorised to issue to the sheriff and and surveyor of Carroll county in this State, all such orders and to make the necessary rules, to enforce the same, as they may from time to time, find to be necessary for all such surveys as may be applied for by either party, in any action now depending in said court, and which was instituted in the same at any time prior to the establishment of Carroll county, to recover, or relating to, any real estate in that part of the latter county, which was before, a portion of Baltimore county.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That said sheriff and surveyor of Carroll county, shall be equally bound to execute any orders for surveys as aforesaid, as if the same had been legally issued by Carroll county court, and shall be entitled to the same compensation as if they had executed said orders from Carroll county court.

Baltimore county court authorised to order—make rules for, &c. in Carroll county

Officers of Carroll county shall obey