

CHAPTER 37.

CHAP. 37.

An act to unite the Primary School Districts number twenty two and twenty three, in Queen Anne's County. Passed Feb 2, 1839.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Primary School districts, number twenty two and twenty three, in Queen Anne's county, from and after the passage of this act shall be united, and be a double Primary school district, and the school house shall be erected at or near Ruthsburg, upon such a site as a majority of the taxable inhabitants shall have already fixed upon, or may fix upon. Districts united School house located

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the taxable inhabitants of district number twenty two shall annually elect three trustees, and district number twenty three shall also elect three trustees, and one trustee shall be elected by the joint vote of the taxable inhabitants of the said two districts, or double district as united, which said election of trustees shall be at said school house, in the same manner as is now established by law for the regulation of Primary schools in Queen Anne's county, and the seven trustees so elected, shall have full power to erect a school house necessary for the establishment and maintenance of said school in the same manner and with the same effect as if the said two districts or double district, were one district, and transact all such other business as the Primary school laws of this State authorize or require. Seven trustees
Their powers

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That in case there should be any children too far from the school house of the united districts, the trustees are authorized and required to have all such children educated at a nearer school if there should be one, upon the same terms as if they were educated in the district, and the trustees of an adjoining district shall receive them into their school, to be paid for out of the funds of the double district. Case of children too distant

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of the school fund for Queen Anne's County shall pay over to the trustees elected as above directed, the full dividend of the two districts semi-annually, to be used Payment over of school dividends