

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the trustees appointed under the act aforesaid, and their successors, officers and agents, be, and they are hereby authorised and directed forthwith to deliver to the regents of the University of Maryland, or to the agents thereof, all the estate, real and personal, including all stocks, monies, evidences of debt and choses in action, in the hands or under the control of said trustees, as such, or their agents.

CHAP. 334.
Trust is to deliver over

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if the delivery aforesaid shall from any cause, be refused or fail to be made within one month after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for Baltimore county court, on application by the regents of the University of Maryland, to grant a rule requiring the trustees, or any of them, or any of their agents or officers, duly appointed for that purpose, to shew cause by reasons in writing and under the oath or affirmation of the parties showing the same, why process to enforce delivery should not issue, whereupon, after such orders in reference to notice or otherwise, as to the said court may seem proper, the said court on being satisfied that the property claimed in the application aforesaid, is in the hands or control of said trustees, as such, or under color or by virtue of their appointment as such trustees, or of their agents or officers, or if default shall be made in showing cause as aforesaid, may enforce delivery of the property so claimed as aforesaid, by attachment of person, or by writ of haberi facias possessionem, or by a writ de retorno habendo, or by all, as the case may require, directed to the sheriff of Baltimore county.

Case of failure to deliver

Proceedings directed

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the matter of said application shall be heard at the first term of the court, to which the same shall be made; provided, that thirty days of the said term shall remain, if not, at the second term thereof, and adjudged without delay.

Cause to be heard at first term

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That before this act shall have any force or effect, the regents of the University of Maryland, shall first by a corporate act, under seal, certify to the Treasurer of Maryland, that the property and estate of the University of Maryland, shall never be disposed of, or converted to any other use than that of medical science, or the arts and sciences generally, without the consent of the General Assembly

Previous concession required