

CHAP 393.

May not attach to any regiment in the county

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That any uniform volunteer company now formed, or that may hereafter be formed in this State, shall have the right and privilege to attach itself to any regiment it may desire, whose regimental district is in whole or in part within the county in which such company may be formed, provided application to that effect be made in writing to the Adjutant General of the State, and signed by not less than a majority of the members of such company.

Proviso

Proceedings directed

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the Adjutant General, upon receiving an application, such as is prescribed by the third section of this act, shall immediately communicate the fact to the commanding officer of the regiment to which the company applying shall ask to be attached, who shall thereupon enrol said company in his regiment and give notice thereof to the captain of the company.

Subject to the order of Command. r of Regiment

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That every uniform volunteer company, after it shall have been enrolled in a regiment other than that in whose regimental district it may be formed, and notice thereof shall have been given to the captain thereof, shall be subject in all respects to the exclusive orders of the commanding officer of the regiment in which it shall have been so enrolled, in the same manner as if formed within his regimental district.

May make rules
and by laws

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That a majority of the members of every uniform volunteer company now formed, or that may hereafter be formed in this State, shall have full power and authority to make all regulations and by-laws for their rule and government, and shall have power to alter and change the same at pleasure, and may impose fines and prescribe the mode of determining and collecting the same, and may appropriate and dispose of the same when collected in any manner they may see fit; provided, that no regulation or by-law framed as aforesaid, shall be contrary to or inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State.

Commanders of regiments on application, authorized to call the regiment into service

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the commanding officer of every regiment within this State, shall have authority and power to call out the militia and volunteer companies under his command, whenever application in writing shall be made to him, by two justices