

CHAP. 406.

minster; thence south, fifty one degrees, west thirty nine and one half perches, to a cherry tree in Ludwick Rudisel's field; thence north, fifty seven degrees, west, forty four perches to the south east corner of the Catholic Grave Yard; thence north, forty degrees; west, fifty two and one fourth perches, to a black oak tree in Ludwick Rudisel's field; thence north, eight and one half degrees, west eighteen and one half perches, to the south west corner of the German Reform Grave Yard; thence north, nineteen and one half degrees, east, fifty three and one half perches to the south west corner of Daniel McKinzer's lot; thence north, forty eight degrees, east twenty perches, to a stone; thence east, fifty four perches, to a stone near the north west corner of the Lutheran Grave Yard; thence south, thirty eight and one half degrees east, one hundred and seven perches to the north east corner of the Lutheran Grave Yard; thence south, thirty degrees east, one hundred and twenty degrees, five perches, to a corner stone of Michael Null's land; thence south, eighty four degrees, west, fifty five perches, to the stone planted at the end of the first line; thence to the place of beginning.

CHAPTER 406.

Passed April 5, 1839. An act for the benefit of Caleb D. Owings, Beale Owings and Cornelius H. Owings.

Commission, as to assess and award damages

In constructing rail road,

Proviso

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That it shall and may be lawful for the judges of Baltimore county court to appoint three suitable persons to assess and award such damages as they, in their judgment, may deem reasonable and right, to the owners of any property which may have been used by Caleb D. Owings, Beale Owings and Cornelius H. Owings, in the location and structure of a private rail road from their quarries to the road of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company; provided the said company shall give their consent; and provided also, the said private rail road shall not extend to a greater distance than two miles from the said quarry.