

employ teachers for the same, upon such terms as they, or a majority of them may deem proper, and it shall be the duty of the said levy court annually thereafter, at their regular levy laying meeting, to levy and assess upon the taxable property of said county, subject to the order of the said trustees, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to pay the annual salaries of all said teachers, to be collected and paid over by the collector of the county tax, to the said teachers respectively, as all other county charges now are; provided however, that no sum or sums shall be paid by the said collector to the said teachers, or any of them, without a previous order from the said trustees or a majority of them.

CHAP. 61.

Annual levy to pay them

Order required

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said schools and school houses shall in all respects, be deemed and considered as free schools for the education of all and every of the children of the citizens of said county, without distinction, discrimination or difference, and it shall and may be lawful for any parent to send to said schools, or any of them, for education, any one or more of their children, without any costs, expense, hindrance or disturbance whatever.

Schools shall be free

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the surveyor of Prince George's county, be and he is hereby authorised and required to assist the commissioners, mentioned in the first section of this act, in dividing and laying out said county in convenient school districts, as is hereinbefore provided for, and the levy court of said county shall allow him as compensation for his said services, any sum in their discretion not exceeding one hundred dollars, to be levied on the assessable property in said county.

Surveyor to aid in districting

Compensation

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That all former acts or parts of acts, inconsistent with, or repugnant to the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealing clause