

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.	Sec.
1840, for William Fresh, a. of Baltimore county, to complete his collections,	178
COL'S. OF CO. TAXES —So soon as the commissioners of Baltimore county shall have made their levy, they shall make out the amount required to be collected, in each election district, and give at least twenty days notice, in two newspapers, and set up at the place of holding elections, inviting sealed proposals for collecting the same, and shall give the collection to the lowest bidder, &c.	201	4
In case of no bid, or neglect to bond, the commissioners shall appoint a, for such district,	”	5
In no case shall said commissioners allow more than 7 per cent to, for collections.	”	”
To authorise Jacob Caples, former, of the 7th collection district, Baltimore county, to complete his collections,	209
Granting one year to Lewis Sewell, the, of the city of Annapolis, and of the 4th collection district of Anne Arundel county, to complete his collections,	314
To authorise Thomas Sater, late, of Baltimore county, to close his collections,	315
To authorise Thomas I. Bayard, former, in the 1st collection district of Cecil county, to complete his collections,	317
To authorise John B. Lawson, late sheriff and, of Charles county, to complete his collections,	339
To authorise Pere Wilmer, former, of Queen Ann's county, further time to complete his collections,	523
COLLEGE —The associated professors of St. Mary's in Baltimore, incorporated,	137
COLUMBIAN FIRE CO. ,—To incorporate a company in the city of Baltimore, called the	246
COMMISSIONERS to negotiate the loan of eight millions,—Their powers and authority revoked, and their duties devolved upon the Treasurer of the Western Shore,	179	