

INDEX TO THE LAWS,

	Chap.	Sec.
CORPORATIONS ,—To incorporate a company in the city of Baltimore, called the Columbian Fire Company,	246
To incorporate the Union Fire Company, in the Borough of Manchester, Carroll county,	248
Prescribing general regulations for the incorporation of Manufacturing and Mining Companies,	267
Whenever hereafter any joint stock companies shall be incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing, exploring, or mining for gold, coal, copper, iron &c., such companies shall be established with the rights, privileges, rules, regulations, and restrictions herein provided,	1
Shall have power under their corporate name to sue and be sued, use a common seal, hold the real estate specified in their special act, and personal property, for the purpose of conducting the operations of the company,	”	2
May make by-laws, not contrary to law,	”	”
But shall in no manner divest the capital of said company from the specified purposes for which they are incorporated,	”	”
But may notwithstanding, till their own land, or sell timber therefrom,	”	”
The maximum and minimum of capital shall be specified in the act of incorporation,	”	3
Books opened for subscription thereto,	”	”
Meeting to organize, directed,	”	”
Notice thereof required,	”	”
In case of land where such operation is designed to be carried on, is proposed as part of the capital, the proceedings prescribed,	”	4
Price to be fixed &c.,	”	”
Or if only part of such tract,	”	”
If approved by stockholders, shall be		