

CHAP. 64

Governor shall demand such slave from such State, as a fugitive from justice

this State or by indictment by any grand jury of this State, being furnished to the governor of this State, by the master, mistress or owner, or any person duly authorized by them to make such claim, it shall be the duty of the governor to demand such slave from the proper authority in the District of Columbia, or from the governor of the State, into which such slave may have escaped as a fugitive from justice.

Purchaser of such slave shall bond to remove him from the State, &c.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the purchaser of such slave, under the provisions of the second section of this act, shall be, and he is hereby required to file in the office of the clerk of the county or city in which said slave shall be made, a bond to the State of Maryland, in the penalty of the sum for which said slave shall be sold, to remove him or her from the State of Maryland, and in default of the execution of such bond by the first purchaser, the said slave shall be again exposed to sale, and shall not be delivered out of the custody of the sheriff, until such bond shall have been filed by the party purchasing.

CHAPTER 64.

Passed Feb. 15, 1839.

An act supplementary to an act, entitled, an act to regulate the Inspection of Tobacco in Prince George's County, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven. chapter two hundred and forty-five.

Scales, weights, &c. to be provided

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there shall be provided and kept by the Inspectors at each of the tobacco warehouses in Prince George's County, proper and sufficient beams, prizes, screws, blocks, tackles, weights and scales; and also a set of small weights, such as are provided for the standing weights of each county, and proper marking irons, seals and all other necessary articles which may be required in the opening, uncasing, and inspection of tobacco, and the said inspectors are hereby required constantly to keep the same in good repair, under the penalty of one hundred dollars, and the charges and expenses thereof shall be paid by the said inspectors, out of the money accruing to the State from their respective warehouses, and they shall be allowed

Kept in order

Expenses thereof