

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Clap. Sec.

next and directing the county clerk to receive and record the bond, 2

DORCHESTER COUNTY,—See Cambridge, in

Supplement to the act of 1836, ch. 201, establishing Magistrate's Courts in the several counties—justices of said courts in, shall hereafter be entitled to fees as prescribed in the original act, instead of per diem allowance, 65

Relating to the records in the office of Register of Wills of, directing Indexes of Wills, and of administrations, to be made out, &c. 82

Ten months from the passage of this act allowed to John R. Martin, late collector of taxes for, to complete his collections, 74

To introduce the cultivation of mulberry trees and the growing of silk, at the Alms House, in, 90

To authorise the erection of a gate on the public road, in district No. 6, in 206

To alter and change part of the division line between election districts No. 4 and 7, in, 212

To abolish the commissioners of the tax, and levy court of, and to provide for the election of commissioners, for said county, by the people, and to prescribe their powers and duties, 235

William W. Handley relieved from payment of a fine, on payment of fees, &c. 250

To regulate the fees to be charged by Sheriff's in executions issued by justices of the peace, for the recovery of small debts, so far as relates to,—fixing the same fees that constables are entitled to, 321

The Lime company of Vienna, in, incorporated, 355

DOORKEEPERS, within the Court-house of Frederick and Washington counties,—For the benefit of, allowing them $1.50 per day from said counties, 232