

CHAP. 64. building, the Legislature shall, at its next session thereafter, impose by law such an additional tax or increase of outage on the tobacco to be inspected in said warehouses as will be sufficient to raise the sum or sums so paid out of the treasury aforesaid, which sum or sums shall be paid into the treasury by the Inspectors aforesaid, to re-emburse the State for the amount thus expended in said repairs and rebuilding.

Tobacco inspected
prior to February,
1839, exempt

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act, and of the original act to which this is a supplement, shall not be construed so as to relate or extend to any tobacco which may have been in said warehouses, or any of them, and which shall have been inspected prior to the first Monday in February, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, but all the revenue which shall have accrued, or which may become due for the same, shall be paid to the late inspectors thereof, to be by them paid over and accounted for to the levy court of said county in the usual manner as heretofore required by law.

Outage regulated

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That until the first day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and forty, the charges for outage, portorage and sealing to be paid by the purchaser or owner of each hogshead of tobacco inspected at, and removed from any of the said warehouses, shall be one dollar as heretofore required by law, but from and after the said first day of April, in the year aforesaid, the charges for outage, portorage and sealing, shall be, and the same is hereby reduced to fifty cents per hogshead, as provided for in the sixth section of the original act to which this is a supplement.

Apr 1, 1840

50 cents afterwards

Inspector prohibited from dealing in
Tobacco

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That no inspector at any of the said warehouses, shall directly or indirectly, during his continuance in the said office, buy either for himself or others, or receive any tobacco by way of barter, loan or exchange, or any way intermeddle with, or busy himself in procuring tobacco to be bought and sold, or consigned to any merchant, or in loading any ship or vessel with tobacco, except the proper tobacco raised or grown by such Inspector, under the penalty of one hundred dollars for every hogshead so bought, sold or consigned, except as aforesaid, the proper tobacco of said Inspector, contrary to this act;