

INDEX TO THE LAWS,

Chap. Sec.

- NANTICOKE RIVER, and its tributaries,—See Oysters, Caroline county.
- NESBIT, J. NOBLE,—For the relief of; the benefit of the insolvent laws extended to, 184
- NOBLE, JOSHUA,—For relief of the heirs of the late, of the State of Delaware, deceased; authorising a division of land &c. 85
- NOBLE, EMILIE W., of the city of Baltimore,—
Divorced a vinculo matrimonii, from her husband Nathaniel G. Noble, 181
- NORTH BRANCH AND CICAPON
TURNPIKE COMPANY, of Virginia,—To permit the, to construct their road through the State of Maryland, so as to intersect the National road in Allegany county, 260
- NORVELL, LORENZO, of the city of Baltimore,—
For relief of; authorised to introduce certain slaves into this State, 183
- NOTTINGHAM,—To provide for the erection of additional wharf for the purpose of shipping tobacco from the public warehouse in the town of, 62
- NOTTINGHAM
SILK COMPANY, of Prince George's county; to incorporate the, 338
- NUMSEN, FREDERICK H., of the city of Baltimore,
Divorce from his wife Eliza Ann Numsen, a vinculo matrimonii, 213

O.

- OLDSON, ROBERT, of Queen Annes county,—
For relief of; benefit of insolvent laws extended to, 223
- OWINGS, CALEB D., Beal Owings and Cornelius H. Owings,—For the benefit of; authorising a method of securing right to a private rail road constructed by, 406
- OYSTERS,—To amend the act of 1837, ch. 310, so far as relates to Caroline county, 35
Citizens of Caroline county shall enjoy the same privileges to take, in the Great Choptank and Nanticoke rivers and their