

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.	Sec.
SHERIFF ,—To authorise John M. Lawson, late, &c. of Charles county, to complete his collections,	339
Requiring the, of the several counties of this State, to serve separately, each writ of copies et respondendum, in their respective hands, against the same defendants, where the said writs are returnable to the same term,	361
Oath to be administered to the, of Harford county, before swearing a jury of inquest, in cases of trial for damages, by construction of the Tide Water Canal,	376	2
To make valid the proceedings of the, of Carroil county,	404
To extend the time for John D. Ward, late, of Calvert county, to collect officers' fees,	413
SHIPS, VESSELS,
STEAM BOATS. &c.—The High Court of Chancery and Courts of Equity shall have jurisdiction between part owners of, &c., and may decree sale of, &c. held by part owners, and apportion proceeds, &c.	303
And in general, have and use such authority as in other cases of partnership,		”
But not in cases when defendant is not resident of the county where the bill is filed		”
SHOT TOWER
COMPANY ,—The Maryland, incorporated,	367
SHREEVE, HENRY ,—For relief of, extending the time allowed by the act of 1838 [7] ch. 215, for time to complete his collections to the 14th March 1840,	52
SILK,
To introduce the cultivation of the mulberry and making of, at the poors house in St. Mary's county,	77
The American silk company of Baltimore, incorporated,	79
To introduce the cultivation of mulberry trees and the growing of, at the Alms house in Dorchester county,	90	