

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.	Sec.
SILK,
To encourage the culture of, at the alms house of Charles county,	160
To introduce the culture of the mul- berry tree and raising of, at the alms house of Kent county,	170
To encourage the growth of the mul- berry and raising of, at the alms and work house of Montgomery county,	192
To introduce the cultivation of the mulberry and making of, at the poors house in Somerset county,	221
To introduce the cultivation of mul- berry trees and the growing of, at the alms house of Queen Ann's county,	231
To introduce the culture of the mul- berry tree and raising of, in the alms house of Caroline county,	296
To incorporate the Unson silk compa- ny of Caroline county,	318
To incorporate the Farmers' silk com- pany of Queen Ann's county,	335
To incorporate the Nottingham silk company of Prince George's county.	338
To incorporate the Still Pond silk co.	340
The silk company of Salisbury, in Som- erset & Worcester counties, incorporated,	341
The Wye silk company incorporated,	342
The Union silk company of Queen Ann's county, incorporated,	343
The St. Michael's silk company in Talbot county, incorporated,	344
The Federalsburg silk co. incorporated,	345
The Montgomery silk co. incorporated,	346
The Easton silk company in Talbot county, incorporated,	347
The Rockhall silk company in Kent county, incorporated,	348
The Baltimore silk co. incorporated,	350
The Centreville Maryland silk com- pany incorporated.	351
The Hillsborough silk company incor- porated.	357
The Kent silk company incorporated,	360	