

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Chap.    Sec.

SLAVES,	To authorise Ann L. Emory to bring into this State sundries negroes, for life,	266
	To prevent the transportation of, upon rail roads or steam boats,	375
	Unlawful to be transported on any rail road or in any steam boat, tow boat or other vessel navigating the waters of this State, without permission in witing from the owner of such, &c.		"    1
	Persons violating this law, liable to a penalty of $500, one half whereof to the informer,		"    "
	In case of the escape of a, by being so transported, owner may recover the value of such, from the rail road company or owner of such vessel so transporting,		"    2
	Slaves travelling in company with their owner or agent, or as attendant of any white person &c. excepted,		"    3
SMELSER,	LEONARD.—To authorise the commissioners of Washington county to refund to, a certain sum of money,	91
SMITH, JOHN,	of the city of Baltimore, divorced, a vinculo matrimonii , from his wife Margaret Smith,	162
SMITH, GEORGE A.—	See Sheriff's Sales , ch.	381
SNYDER, WILLIAM,	divorced, a vinculo matrimonii , from his wife Louisa Snyder,	41
SOLITARY CONFINEMENT,	&c.—The power of courts to condemn persons to, in the Maryland Penitentiary, revoked and annulled,	400	3
SOMERSET COUNTY.—	To consolidate the 6th and 11th election districts of,	12
	Authorising the orphan's court of, to apportion widows dower to the widow of George A. Dashiell,	16
	Supplement to the act for the relief of Samuel G. Holbrook, late sheriff of, allowing him till 1st May 1840, to complete his collections,	107
	To provide for the election of commissioners for, and to enlarge their powers and duties,	109	