

CHAPTER 9.

CHAP 9.

An act to establish two additional election districts in Baltimore county, and for the general arrangement of the whole, so far as appellation and numbers are concerned. Passed Jan. 15, 1839.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the commissioners of Baltimore county shall appoint from the first, second, fifth and seventh election districts in said county, a commissioner from each, whose duty it shall be, to lay out and establish a new election district, by taking a portion of each of the above mentioned districts, and the said district, when established, shall be known by the appellation of the Pikesville district, or district number three. Commissioners to lay out Pikesville district

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Baltimore county, shall also appoint a commissioner from the fifth, eighth, ninth and thirteenth election districts, whose duty it shall be to lay out and establish a new election district from a portion of the above mentioned districts in this sections, and the remaining portion of Dug Hill district, and the said district, when established, shall be known by the appellation of the White House district, or district number five. To lay out White House district

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That from henceforth, the election districts in said county shall be distinguished and known by the following appellations and numbers, viz:—Ellicott's Mills district, or district number one, Randall's Town district, or district number two, Pikesville district, or district number three, Riester Town district, or district number four, White House district, or district number five, Middle Town district, or district number six, Wiseburg district or district number seven, Cockey's district, or district number eight, Govan's Town district, or district number nine, Slade's district, or district number ten, King's district, or district number eleven, Neck district, or district number twelve. Districts named

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the requisitions of this act shall be executed, on or before the first day of September, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, and the Time prescribed