An ACT to confirm to Lewis Grant Davidson, of the City of Baltimore, the surname of Davidson.

WHEREAS Lewis Grant Davidson, (formerly Lewis Grant,) of the city of Baltimore, by his petition to this general assembly, hath set forth, that by the last will and testament of his uncle, Samuel Davidson, late of the district of Columbia, deceased, a considerable real, personal and mixed estate, was devised and bequeathed to him by the name of Lewis Grant, upon the special condition and trust that he should, by lawful authority, as soon as possible, take, assume and use, for ever thereafter, to him and his heirs, the surname of Davidson, in lieu of Grant; that being desirous to comply as soon as might be with the request of his said uncle, and to take possession of the said estate, which under the said will could only be done upon his complying with the said condition, he did soon after the death of his said uncle take, assume and use the said surname of Davidson, in lieu of Grant, and did give public notice declaring such his determination, and of his intention to apply for a law sanctioning such change of his surname; he therefore prayed that a law might pass ratifying and confirming the surname of Davidson by him taken, assumed and used, from the time of such public notice, and to confirm all acts by him done by and under the surname of Davidson, and declaring that he and his heirs should for ever hereafter be called, known, named and designated, by the surname of Davidson, in lieu of Grant; and it appearing reasonable that the prayer of the said petitioner should be granted, therefore,

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all securities, promises, contracts, assurances, deeds and lawful acts whatsoever, heretofore made or done, or hereafter to be made or done, by or to the said Lewis Grant, by the name and surname of Lewis Grant Davidson, shall be of the same force, validity and effect, and equally avail to all intents and purposes, as if the name and surname of Lewis Grant Davidson had been the true and proper name and surname of the said Lewis Grant from his birth, any law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.
