An ACT to empower the Trustee herein after named to sell certain Lands belonging to Anna Maria O'Bryon, situate, lying and being, in Queen-Anne's County, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

Passed December 25, 1810.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Edward Clayton, be and he is hereby constituted and appointed trustee, to sell and convey, in fee-simple, all the right, title and interest, that Anna Maria O'Bryon, a minor, has in certain lands situate, lying and being, in Queen-Anne's county, which she has lawfully inherited under the will of her grand-father James O'Bryon, deceased, known by the name of Claxon Hill, or by whatever name or names it may be called, containing about twenty-eight acres, be the same more or less.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the trustee aforesaid, before he proceeds to sell the land aforesaid, shall give bond to the state of Maryland, with competent security to be approved of by the orphans court, in the sum of six hundred dollars, for the faithful discharge of the duties required by this act, which bond shall be recorded by the register of said court, and may be put in suit by any person or persons interested, in the same manner as administration bonds usually are.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the trustee aforesaid shall proceed to sell the land aforesaid, either for cash or credit, at public or private sale, as may to him appear to be most conducive to the interest of the said minor, and that the interest arising therefrom shall be annually by him paid to the use of the said Anna Maria O'Bryon, minor, until she arrives at age, or be married, at which period he is hereby directed to pay over to the said Anna Maria O'Bryon the whole principal sum for which the said land was sold.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the sale to be made by the trustee aforesaid, shall be approved of by the justices of the orphans court, in order to give it validity; and provided nevertheless, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to bar the right that any creditor might otherwise enjoy and have against the said lands.
