An ACT to lay out and open a Road from Archibald Dysart's Tavern, in Cecil County, to the Pennsylvania line, in the direction to Lund's Tavern.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That captain John Evans, Thomas Garrett and John Jourdan, or a majority of them, are hereby appointed commissioners to survey and lay off a public road from Archibald Dysart's tavern, in New Munster, in Cecil county, to run about a north-north-east course, or in as straight a line as may be, to intersect the Pennsylvania line in a direction to Lund's tavern, provided that the same shall not be laid out to run over the orchard, garden, yard or meadow, of any person, without the consent of the owners thereof; provided always, that the levy court for sufficient cause may reject said plot and return, and may direct said commissioners to return another plot of said road, and so from time to time till a plot shall be returned which shall be approved of and confirmed by said court.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the levy court of said county, if a plot shall be returned and approved of as aforesaid, be and are hereby empowered, at the next court thereafter, to appoint an overseer or overseers to open and clear said road according to said plot, and to levy such sum of money, as in the discretion of said court shall be considered reasonable, for the purpose of clearing and opening said road as aforesaid, and the said road, when surveyed, laid out and opened as aforesaid, shall be deemed a public road, and shall be kept in repair as other public roads in said county are.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners shall be entitled to receive as a compensation the sum of two dollars for every day they shall attend for the discharge of the duties required of them by this act, and the said overseer or overseers shall receive the same compensation which the overseers of public roads respectively receive, which compensation shall be respectively levied, collected and paid, in the same manner that other county charges are.
