

CHAP. 224. ever, the said sale was in all respects bona fide made and in pursuance of law; and provided further, that the said court shall be satisfied that due notice of the application for the ratification of said sale, was given to the defendants in said case.

---

CHAPTER 223.

Passed Mar. 5, 1840. An act extending the time for completing the Turnpike Road from Boonsborough, in Washington County, to Swearingen's Ferry, on the Potomac River.

Time extended until 1845 SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the time for completing the turnpike road from Boonsborough to Swearingen's ferry on the Potomac river, in Washington county, be and the same is hereby extended to the year eighteen hundred and forty-five, and to the end of the next session of the legislature thereafter.

Rate of tolls SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the president, directors and company of the said road, be and they are hereby authorised to receive toll upon the whole of the said road which is now completed and in public use, at a rate not higher than is authorised by the original act of incorporation; provided, the said road is kept by the said company in good condition and repair, according to the requirements of the charter incorporating the said company.

Proviso

---

CHAPTER 224.

Passed Mar. 5, 1840. A supplement to an act passed December session eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter two hundred and sixty, entitled an act for the relief of the heirs and devisees of Doctor Elisha J. Hall, late of Baltimore, deceased.

Preamble

WHEREAS, by an act of eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter two hundred and sixty, Edward E. Hall and Samuel T. Stonestreet, were appointed to sell and dispose of certain property therein mentioned; and whereas, the heirs of the said Doctor Elisha J. Hall, deceased, have petitioned this General Assembly, that the name of Elisha