

CHAP. 28. shall place the said brand on any cask, barrel or half barrel of flour, he shall forfeit and pay to the State, a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, for each and every offence, to be recovered before any justice of the peace in the city of Baltimore.

Recoverable,

Inspectors to apportion expenses, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That hereafter the general inspector and three assistant inspectors of flour, shall apportion among themselves the whole of the expenses of their respective offices, and each shall bear and pay an equal part of such expenses, and in like manner the proceeds of their offices as inspectors, and of the sales of the drawings, shall be equally divided among them, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 28.

Passed Mar. 16, 1840. A supplement to the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter one hundred and forty, entitled an act for the education of the indigent deaf and dumb of this State.

Any surplus, of the sum of $3,500, to be applied to educating indigent blind.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in case there shall be recommended to the Governor of this State by the trustees of the poor of the different counties, more indigent blind children than can be educated under the provisions of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, chapter one hundred and seventy-three, any surplus which may annually remain in the treasury, of the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars appropriated by the law to which this is a supplement, for the education of the deaf and dumb, shall be applied to the education of such indigent blind children, in the manner pointed out in the first section of the said act of eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, chapter one hundred and seventy-three; and that the Governor shall be and he is hereby authorised to draw on the same accordingly.