

CHAP. 267.

Limits of town

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the limits of said town of Havre-de-Grace shall commence, to wit: beginning for the same at the north end of York street, of Reed's Addition of said town, and running thence due north one-fourth of a mile, thence an east north course, until it intersects the Tide Water Canal, thence with the Susquehanna river southerly until it intersects the line of Convenience of Harman's Addition, thence westerly with said line until it intersects said Reed's Addition to the town of Havre-de Grace.

To appoint a clerk—his compensation and duties

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint a clerk, and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper, and that all ordinances passed by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall by their clerk be entered in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be published in all the newspapers of the town, and also shall be put up in the most public places of said town, that the same may be generally known.

Authority to remove all nuisances, &c

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power and authority to determine upon and regulate all matters relating to the erecting or building of wharves in the said town, to regulate the moving of rafts, arks and boats, and to prevent all nuisances and obstructions from being placed in the waters of the said Susquehanna river, in front of said town.

May levy and collect taxes

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That said commissioners shall have full power and authority to levy and collect taxes in said town, not exceeding in any one year, thirty cents in the hundred dollars, on the assessable property of said town; and for the purpose of making said levy, they shall once in every three years, or oftener if they think proper, appoint an assessor, who shall, under oath value, appraise and assess the property in said town, in the same manner and with like authority as county assessors proceed to assess in the county; provided always, that in assessing any of the lands within the limits of said town, which may be occupied and used as farms, or may be a part or parts of farms, that then such lands shall be valued and assessed as lots of ten acres of ground with the buildings and improvements thereon, and shall not be valued and assessed by the number of acres in said farms or part or parts of farms.
