

thirty-nine, when the supervisor obtained leave from the levy court of said county, to open the road on the original location, which passes through the lands of the petitioner, for which he has not received any compensation—therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Frederick county, may in their discretion, appoint three commissioners to view the location of said road; and the said commissioners by this act appointed, shall value and ascertain the amount of damages, if any, that the said George Blessing has sustained by the said road known as number sixty-eight, passing through his lands, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages, if any; and the damages so ascertained, shall be levied and assessed as other county charges are.

CHAP. 274.

To appoint commissioners to view road and value damages

Damages to be levied

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the compensation to said commissioners shall not exceed two dollars per day, for each day they are necessarily engaged, to be paid as other commissioners are for similar services.

Commissioners compensation

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act, shall be so construed as to require the levy court to appoint commissioners, unless they are fully satisfied that justice requires it; and nothing shall be so construed as to prevent either party from appealing from the decision of the commissioners, if appointed under the provisions of this act.

How construed

---

CHAPTER 274.

An act to incorporate the Wesley Beneficial Society of Baltimore.

Passed Mar 17, 1840

WHEREAS, William Askey, Stephen Severson, Nathaniel J. Ellicott, Martin Mettee, Nicholas McCubbin, Richard H. McMullen, William Coburn, Stephen F. Burgess, John Johnson, John Sailor, John Askey, Allen Burgess, Nathaniel Bramble, Samuel S. Barton, Richard Hopkins, and others, have formed themselves into a society for the laudable purpose of affording relief to each other and their respective families in the event of sickness and death, and have prayed an act of incorporation, that they may the better execute their intentions; and the

Preamble