

the amount of money which may be expended under the provisions of this act, or which has heretofore been expended upon the Eastern Shore rail road, shall be taken and considered as a part of said million of dollars.

CHAP. 325.

Money expended under this act to be part payment

CHAPTER 324.

An act to divorce John Tull, from his wife Beersheba Tull. Passed Mar. 20, 1840.

WHEREAS, it appears to this General Assembly, that John Tull and Beersheba Tull, his wife, has been living separate and apart for several years past; and whereas, the affections of the parties are so entirely alienated as to preclude all hope of their living together in harmony and peace—therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Tull, be and he is hereby divorced, a vinculo matrimonii, from his wife Beersheba Tull.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Beersheba Tull, may, and she is hereby authorised to re-assume her sirname, which she used before her intermarriage with her said husband.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said John Tull shall not, by virtue of his marriage with the said Beersheba, be in any manner entitled to or claim any right, title or interest in the estate, real, personal or mixed, of the said Beersheba; nor shall the said Beersheba be entitled to have or claim any right, title or interest in the estate, real, personal or mixed, of the said John Tull.

CHAPTER 325.

An act to incorporate the Montgomery Company. Passed Mar. 16, 1840.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Landsdale, Thomas C. Miller, John Berry, Thomas S. Berry, James Arthen, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby made, constituted and declared to be a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of the Montgomery Company, and as such, by that name may have perpetual succession, and may sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded,