

- CHAP. 326. amount of two-thirds of its capital actually paid in, the directors under whose administration this may happen, shall be liable for the same in their natural and private capacities, and an action may in such case be brought against them, or any of them, or their heirs, executors or administrators, in any court of record in this State, by any creditor or creditors of the said corporation, and may be prosecuted to judgment and execution, any condition, covenant or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the said corporation, or the lands, tenements, goods and chattels and estate of the same from being also liable for, and chargeable with the said excess; provided always, that such of the said directors as may have been absent when the said excess was created, and who may have dissented from the resolution or act whereby the same was created, may respectively exonerate themselves from being so liable, by forthwith giving notice of the fact, and of their absence or dissent to the Governor of this State, and to the stockholders, at a general meeting which they shall have power to call for that purpose.
- Directors individually responsible shall be liable for the same in their natural and private capacities, and an action may in such case be brought against them, or any of them, or their heirs, executors or administrators, in any court of record in this State, by any creditor or creditors of the said corporation, and may be prosecuted to judgment and execution, any condition, covenant or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the said corporation, or the lands, tenements, goods and chattels and estate of the same from being also liable for, and chargeable with the said excess; provided always, that such of the said directors as may have been absent when the said excess was created, and who may have dissented from the resolution or act whereby the same was created, may respectively exonerate themselves from being so liable, by forthwith giving notice of the fact, and of their absence or dissent to the Governor of this State, and to the stockholders, at a general meeting which they shall have power to call for that purpose.
- Action may be brought against them, or any of them, or their heirs, executors or administrators, in any court of record in this State, by any creditor or creditors of the said corporation, and may be prosecuted to judgment and execution, any condition, covenant or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the said corporation, or the lands, tenements, goods and chattels and estate of the same from being also liable for, and chargeable with the said excess; provided always, that such of the said directors as may have been absent when the said excess was created, and who may have dissented from the resolution or act whereby the same was created, may respectively exonerate themselves from being so liable, by forthwith giving notice of the fact, and of their absence or dissent to the Governor of this State, and to the stockholders, at a general meeting which they shall have power to call for that purpose.
- Lands, &c. also liable shall be liable for the same in their natural and private capacities, and an action may in such case be brought against them, or any of them, or their heirs, executors or administrators, in any court of record in this State, by any creditor or creditors of the said corporation, and may be prosecuted to judgment and execution, any condition, covenant or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the said corporation, or the lands, tenements, goods and chattels and estate of the same from being also liable for, and chargeable with the said excess; provided always, that such of the said directors as may have been absent when the said excess was created, and who may have dissented from the resolution or act whereby the same was created, may respectively exonerate themselves from being so liable, by forthwith giving notice of the fact, and of their absence or dissent to the Governor of this State, and to the stockholders, at a general meeting which they shall have power to call for that purpose.
- Proviso provided always, that such of the said directors as may have been absent when the said excess was created, and who may have dissented from the resolution or act whereby the same was created, may respectively exonerate themselves from being so liable, by forthwith giving notice of the fact, and of their absence or dissent to the Governor of this State, and to the stockholders, at a general meeting which they shall have power to call for that purpose.
- Banking forbid SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to confer banking privileges on the company aforesaid, nor the right to issue any note, certificate or other device in the nature of a bank note.
- In force SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall continue in force for the period of thirty years and thereafter, and shall at all times from and after the organization of the company hereby incorporated, be liable to be amended or repealed, either in whole or in part, at the pleasure of the legislature.
- Rights reserved and shall at all times from and after the organization of the company hereby incorporated, be liable to be amended or repealed, either in whole or in part, at the pleasure of the legislature.

CHAPTER 326.

Passed Mar. 7, 1840. An act to divorce Abraham Cuyk, from his wife Susan L. Cuyk.

Divorce Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Abraham Cuyk, of Baltimore city, be and he is hereby divorced from his wife Susan L. Cuyk, a vinculo matrimonii.