

CHAPTER 56.

CHAP. 57.

An act supplemental to an act, entitled an act to provide for building a new Court House in the town of Cumberland, in Allegany county, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter eighty-nine. Passed Feb. 4, 1840.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of Allegany county, may in their discretion, assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, at the time of making their next public levies, such sum of money as in their judgment shall be necessary for finishing and completing said court house; provided, that they shall not in any one year levy a greater sum than one thousand dollars, nor in the whole a greater sum than four thousand dollars. Levy to be made to finish court house
Proviso

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, at their regular annual levies, in addition to such levies as they may make for completing said court house, may levy a sufficient sum to pay the collectors commission for collecting the same; and that the assessment hereby authorized to be made and levied, shall be collected by the collector of the county charges for the time being, in the same manner as other public charges are by law collected; and the said money, or any instalment thereof, when collected, shall be paid over by such collector to the aforesaid commissioners, or the majority of them, appointed under the act to which this is a supplement; and they or a majority of them are required to apply the same to the use and purpose by this act directed. Collectors commission levied
How collected
To whom paid

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all the powers and duties conferred on the said commissioners by the eighth section of the act to which this is a supplement, be and the same are hereby extended to, and fully vested in the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them. Certain powers vested in commissioners

CHAPTER 57.

A supplement to an act to provide for weighing Hay and Straw brought for sale in the city of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 7, 1840

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all hay and straw, brought to the city of Baltimore for sale, either by land or water, except hay in To be weighed at State scales