

CHAP. 128. by being desirous of renewing his petition, and of again appearing before the said court, notwithstanding such unfavorable decision; and it being deemed unreasonable that said debtor should remain in imprisonment whilst he is desirous of satisfying said court that he has fairly surrendered up all the property that he has been possessed of:—Therefore,

Insolvent laws extended to

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Morris Malsby be, and he is hereby authorised to prosecute a petition for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this State, notwithstanding the unfavorable decision heretofore made upon his former petition, and that he shall have the same privilege with respect to such petitioning anew, as he might or could have had if his former application had not been refused by said court.

CHAPTER 128.

Passed Mar. 5, 1838. An act for the benefit of the heirs at law of Richard Beall, of Allegany county.

Preamble

WHEREAS, a certain Jacob Hoblitzell, late of Allegany county, in this State, departed this life, seized in fee of certain lands, situate, lying and being in said county; and whereas, said lands were sold, and a certain Richard Beall did make purchase of a portion of said real estate; and whereas, said Beall hath also departed this life, leaving one child, and Thomas J. McKaig is the executor of said Beall; and whereas, a certain William Lamar did purchase the life estate of the widow of said Hoblitzell, and said Lamar hath also departed this life, and it is greatly to the advantage of the heir at law of the said Beall that she should possess the entire interest in said estate:—Therefore,

Authorised to purchase

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the guardian of the said heir at law, be, and he is hereby authorised to purchase said life estate in said lands, for the use, benefit and advantage of the heir at law of the said Beall, if the said purchase shall be approved of by the orphan's court of Allegany county; and the said purchase, when so made and approved of, shall vest the title to said life estate in said heir at law.