SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the inspectors of primary schools of said county, when that act shall be in operation, shall pay to the trustees under this act, annually, out of the school fund of the county, a sum of money proportionate in amount to the number of children educated by such society, and the number of free schools established in Frederick county, together with the whole number of children educated therein.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted. That the society hereby incorporated, shall be entitled to all the school fund intended and secured for the use of the Female Benevolent School of All Saints Parish, in Frederick, by chapter eighty-seven, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-six.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the property of this society shall be exempt from taxation until the Legislature shall otherwise direct.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That in the selection of children as pupils for the benefit of this act, no regard shall be had, no preference given to the children of any particular denomination of Christians.

Marginal notes: CHAP. 143. Payment from Primary School Inspectors — Female Benevolent schools' fund — Exempt from tax — Not sectarian

CHAPTER 148.

A further supplement to the act to Incorporate the Maryland Mining Company.

Passed Mar. 13, 1838.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the capital stock of the Mineral Bank of Maryland, which is established by the act, entitled, a supplement to an act to incorporate the Maryland Mining Company, passed at December session in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and fifty-one, be, and the same is hereby reduced to the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in shares of fifty dollars each.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the bonus required by the act to which this is a supplement, shall be reduced in the proportion of the reduction of the capital stock, that is to say: to the sum of nine thousand three hundred and seventy-five dollars in addition to the

Marginal notes: Capital reduced to $250,000 — Bonus reduced to $9,375

20