

CHAPTER 162.

CHAP. 163.

A supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the preservation of Wild Fowl in the waters of Swan creek, Specotia narrows, Rumney creek, Bush river, and Gunpowder river, and the waters of Anne Arundel county.

Passed Mar. 15, 1838.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person shall hereafter, in any of the waters of Harford, Baltimore and Anne Arundel counties, shoot at wild fowl during the night time with a gun of any description, unless it be from the land, nor shall any person, at any time, either in the day or in the night, shoot any description of gun from skiffs or other boats, which may not be conveniently discharged from the shoulder at arms length, without a rest, and every person convicted of a violation of this act before any magistrate of any county adjoining the waters or water courses in which the offence may be committed, shall be fined in the sum of fifty dollars, one half to the informer, the other half to the commissioners of the county in which the offence may be committed, for the use of said county.

Certain shooting prohibited

Penalty

SEC. 2. And be it enacted That in the trial of every action which may be brought to enforce the penalties of this act, either party may have the right to appeal to the county court of the county in which the said action may be commenced, under the limitations and subject to the regulations as are now provided for taking appeals from magistrates' judgments for debt.

Appeal provided

CHAPTER 163.

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to provide for the public instruction of youth in primary schools throughout this State, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter one hundred and sixty-two.

Passed Mar. 15, 1838.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, all white

Children from 5 to 18 years old, entitled