CHAPTER 25.

An act to define the duties of Sheriffs, Coronors or Elisors, so far as relates to Baltimore county.

Passed Jan. 25,
1838

WHEREAS, by an act passed December session, eighteen hundred and sixteen, chapter one hundred and thirty nine, ordering and directing the summoning of jurors for the trial of causes in Baltimore County Court, it was directed and required that the jurors so summoned should be taken from the county out of the limits of the city or precincts, and whereas no good cause has been shown why jurors summoned to assess, and decide on damage supposed to be committed on the lands or property of any person in said county, by reason
