

CHAP. 186. as to throw a part of the sixth district into the first:—

Therefore,

Alteration

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
That the line between district number one and six shall be so altered, by commencing at Peter Showman's schoolhouse, running thence with the road to William Lewis' blacksmith shop, and thence with said road to the division line of said election districts.

CHAPTER 186.

Passed Mar. 20, 1838. An act to authorise the Commissioners of Washington county to appoint Judges and fix the places of holding the elections in the ninth election district in said county.

Preamble

WHEREAS, by an act passed December session eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter one hundred and forty-eight, and confirmed by this General Assembly, creating a new election district in said county to be composed of part of third and seventh districts; and whereas, no power being vested in the commissioners of said county to fix the place of holding the election nor for the appointment of judges:—Therefore,

Direction given

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
That as soon as the commissioners appointed by law to lay out said election district, shall have made their return to Washington county court agreeable to the provisions of said law, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of Washington county to fix upon the place for holding the elections in said district, and to appoint three judges to conduct the same.
