

CHAP. 191.

Public notice

the board aforesaid shall cause public notice to be given of such election at least ten days previous; and the nine having the largest number of votes shall be declared duly elected.

Case of vacancy

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That at all times, and forever hereafter, when any vacancy or vacancies shall happen in the said community of trustees, by the death, resignation, removal or the refusal to act of any one or more of them, and in that case the remaining trustees, or a majority of them, shall proceed to elect one or more persons as the case may be, to fill up such vacancy or vacancies to serve for the residue of the term, and in like manner shall future vacancies be supplied by the trustees, and five of said board shall always be necessary to form a quorum for the transaction of business.

Quorum

General powers of trustees

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, and their successors, by the name and style aforesaid, shall be capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court or courts, and before any judge, justice or justices within this State and elsewhere, in all and any manner of suits, complaints, pleas, causes, matters and demands of whatsoever kind, nature or form they may be, and all and every other matter or thing to do therein in as full and as effectual a manner as any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate within this State, in like cases, may or can do and perform; and the said trustees, or their successors, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to have, make and use one common seal, with such device and inscription as they may think proper, and therewith to pass and authenticate the certificates, acts and orders of the said corporation, and the same seal to break, after and renew at pleasure.

Appoint teachers, &c.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors shall have power and authority to appoint professors, teachers and assistants in said academy for instructing the students in such science and branches of education as they may think proper and suitable to be taught therein, and make ordinances, rules and regulations for the good government of the institution and the instruction of youth; provided the

By laws