

county, be, and they are hereby required to observe the provisions of this act. CHAP. 195.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That every teacher of a school in Cecil county, shall be paid for each and every poor scholar, entitled to share the benefit of said fund, who shall have received tuition in the school kept by said teacher, provided, that no teacher shall be entitled to be paid for any greater number of poor scholars than now are or hereafter may be, by said Orphans' Court allowed to be taken by said teacher, and and that he shall not charge for such tuition, more than the rate that may be usual for similar instruction, in that part of the county where his school shall have been kept, and provided further, that such teacher shall make oath that his account is just and true, and shall produce to the said Orphans' Court a certificate signed by two respectable persons, resident in the neighbourhood of such school, that every scholar charged for in said account, is entitled to participate in the benefit of said poor school fund.

Teachers shall be paid for poor scholars
Oath required

CHAPTER 195.

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to regulate Gates in Kent county, passed May session eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter three hundred and fifty-seven. Passed Mar. 21, 1838.

WHEREAS, by the third section of an act passed at May session, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter three hundred and fifty-seven, a tax of two dollars and fifty cents is imposed on each and every gate in said county, being on the public roads of said county, and the said tax being considered onerous and oppressive:—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the third section of said act, as imposes a tax of two dollars and fifty cents on each and every gate, is hereby repealed; and a tax of one dollar, and no more, shall hereafter annually be paid for each and every gate kept on the public roads of said county, by the person keeping the same.

Repeal
Tax $1