

CHAPTER 202.

CHAP. 203.

A further supplement to an act, entitled, an act to establish Magistrates' Courts in the several counties of this State, and to prescribe their jurisdiction, so far as it relates to Dorchester County. Passed Mar. 21, 1838.

WHEREAS, by the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and one, establishing magistrates' courts in the several counties in this State and prescribing their jurisdiction, the justices of the several courts are required to meet at least once in every month; and whereas, it has been found by experience that the frequency of the meeting of said courts, in Dorchester county, is not authorised by the amount of business brought before them, and consequently productive of more expense than was contemplated:— Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next the justices of the several district courts in Dorchester county, or any two of them, are authorised and required to hold a court at least once in every three months, or oftener if the public convenience may require, in their respective election districts in said county, any thing in the original act to the contrary notwithstanding. Court once in three months

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any thing in the original act, to which this is a supplement, requiring the judges of said district courts to hold a court once in each month, be, and the same is hereby repealed. Repealing clause

CHAPTER 203.

An act to lay out and open a Road in Dorchester County. Passed Mar. 21, 1838.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John R. Keenc, Thomas Jones, of Colonel, John Crawford, John Dorsey and George Winthrop, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to survey, lay out and open a road not exceeding thirty feet in width, commencing at the water in Commissioners to lay out and open Location