

entitled to all the estate, real, personal and mixed, CHAP. 31.
 choses in action etc., belonging to or due to the several companies aforesaid, and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded on the several contracts, obligations, claims and demands of the several companies aforesaid, by the name and style of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Rail Road Company.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the rate of tolls of Tolls the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Rail Road Company for freight or transportation of passengers shall be uniform, equal and alike upon freight or passengers transported from Philadelphia to Baltimore and from Baltimore to Philadelphia and for equal distance in either direction.

CHAPTER 31.

An act to authorize Benjamin I. Cohen, to make and Passed Jan. 31, execute a deed for certain lands therein mentioned, to 1838.
Andrew Biggs, of the State of Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS, Israel Cohen, Solomon E. Cohen, Ra- Preamble chel E. Cohen, Maria Cohen, Catharine F. Cohen, Georgian Cohen and Edward Cohen, of the city of Baltimore, by their petition to this General Assembly have set forth, that they are the children and heirs at law of Catharine Cohen, deceased, and that their said mother in her lifetime, entered into a contract to sell to a certain Andrew Biggs, of the State of Pennsylvania, her interest (being one undivided seventh part) in a certain tract or part of a tract of land, lying on the Sewickly Old Town Creek, in Sewickly Township, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, for a certain sum, whereof a part being paid, the residue is payable upon the delivery to the purchaser of a good and sufficient deed for her said interest, which nevertheless they are unable to execute by reason of their minority, and it seeming reasonable, that the said infants should not lose the benefit of said sale;—Therefore,