is made, and a copy of said inspectors' bonds, under the seal of the said county court, shall be as good and sufficient evidence in any court of this State as the original would be if produced and legally proved.

Case of failing to bond

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if any inspector appointed under this act shall fail to give bond within thirty days after the notification of his or their appointment, the Governor and Senate, if in session, shall appoint some other inspector, or inspectors, in his or their place, and all vacancies which may or shall occur in any of the offices of said inspectors, either by death, resignation, refusal to serve, failure to bond, or otherwise, shall be filled by the Governor and Senate, if in session, and if the Senate shall not be in session at the time said vacancy shall occur, then by the Governor, in which latter event the person so appointed shall serve until the next annual appointment shall be made, as is herein before provided for.

Salary $500

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the inspectors of tobacco of said warehouses shall have an annual salary of five hundred dollars each, to be paid to them, and each of them, annually, by the Treasurer of the Western Shore, out of the said tobacco inspection fund, for said county, to be paid into the said treasury as is hereinbefore provided for, and not more than one inspector shall be appointed for any one of said warehouses.

Outage 50 cts

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the purchaser or owner of each hogshead of tobacco inspected at any of the said warehouses, shall pay to the inspector thereof, before removing the same from said warehouses, or any of them, the sum of fifty cents for outage, portorage and sealing, to be paid by them and each of them, into the treasury aforesaid, and accounted for as is hereinbefore provided for.

Building W. prohibited

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That no warehouse for the inspection of tobacco shall be built or erected in said county, unless by authority of an act of the Legislature.

Inspectors' duties

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the inspectors of tobacco in said county, and each of them, to attend at their respective warehouses every day in the week during the months of May, June, July, August, September and October, and at
