

CHAP. 265.

CHAPTER 264.

Passed Mar. 22, 1838. A supplement to the act, entitled, an act to abolish the office of the Commissioners of the Tax, for Charles County.

Days of attendance

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Levy Court for Charles county, to attend at the Court House in said county, on each Monday and Tuesday, in the months of March and April, in every year, for the purpose of making changes and transfers of property, instead of the days heretofore fixed by law.

CHAPTER 265.

Passed Mar. 22, 1838. An act for the relief of Alexander Donoho, of Somerset county.

Preamble

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty four, chapter twenty six, entitled, an act to provide for the building of a bridge across Law's Thoroughfare, in Somerset county, certain persons therein named were appointed commissioners to locate the said bridge, and contract for the building thereof, and whereas, it was made the duty of the said commissioners after locating said bridge, to publish the contract for the building thereof, in the Village Herald, a newspaper printed in Princess Ann, three weeks, and then offer the same in the town of Princess Ann at public action to the lowest and best bidder, after sale of said contract so as aforesaid to be made, the said commissioners were directed to report said contract with the name of the purchasers, to the levy court of the said county, and the purchaser, by the said act, was required to give bond with security to the said Levy Court for the faithful performance of the said contract so as aforesaid to be made, and the said court, upon the completion of the said bridge and the recep-