

CHAP. 274.

CHAPTER 273.

Passed Mar. 23, 1838. An additional supplement to an act, entitled, an act to establish Magistrate's Courts, in the several counties of this State, and to prescribe their jurisdiction, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, so far as relates to Cecil County.

Preamble

WHEREAS, under the privileges granted by the fourth section of the act to which this is an additional supplement, a Magistrate's Court was established in the village of Port Deposit, in Cecil county, with power to take cognizance over all cases within their jurisdiction, in the third and fourth election districts of said county; and whereas, since the passage of said act, and the organization of said court, the said election districts have been altered, and the number of districts in said county increased, and it appearing that the said village of Port Deposit is embraced within the limits of the sixth election district:—Therefore,

District court arranged

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That the Magistrates court heretofore embraced within the limits of the third and fourth election districts of Cecil county, shall from and after the passage of this act, be, and is hereby declared to be embraced within the limits of the sixth election district of said county, and as such, the said court shall have jurisdiction within the limits of said district.

Repealing clause

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any acts, or parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as relates to Cecil county.

CHAPTER 274.

Passed Mar. 29, 1838. An act for the relief of sundry Poor persons, in the several Counties therein mentioned.

Levy authorized

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Levy Court, or County Commissioners, as the case may be, of Harford, Prince George's, Queen Ann's, Cecil, Montgomery, and Baltimore, counties,