

CHAP. 281. see cause, to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, for the use of Mary Ann Hinds, a lunatic, the sum of twenty-five dollars, payable to Thomas Lynch, or his order; to Henry Newcomer, a superannuated man, the sum of fifteen dollars, payable to Jacob Beaver, or his order; and to Eliza McKinsey, the sum of fifteen dollars, payable to Hezekiah Crout, or order.

---

CHAPTER 281.

Passed Mar. 29, 1838. An act to open and lay out a Public Road in Frederick and Carroll Counties.

Commissioners to open

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That David Dudderar, of Frederick county, Larkin Buckingham and Daniel Engle, of Carroll county, be, and they are hereby authorised to lay out and open a road of sufficient width, to commence at such point on the old Liberty road, as the commissioners in their judgment may deem best; running thence to Jacob Roop's mill, (on the south side;) from thence up the race to the first bridge, to intersect the road leading out from Aaron E. Cover's tan yard; from thence to the old field north of Levin Gosnell's; and from thence to intersect the Harrisville road, at or near Beall Gosnell's dwelling, in Carroll county; and that the commissioners shall make out two plats of said road, and return them to the clerks of Frederick and Carroll counties respectively, to be recorded among the records of said counties; and the said road, when so opened, shall be thereafter deemed a public road forever, and shall be kept in repair in the same manner as other public roads in said counties.

Return plat

Public road

Expenses appropriated

Frederick co.

Carroll co.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the expense of surveying and opening said road shall be paid by Frederick and Carroll counties respectively, in manner following, that is to say, the expense of surveying and opening so much thereof as may pass through Frederick county, shall be levied on and paid by Frederick county; and in like manner for that part that may pass through Carroll county; and the levy courts of