

CHAP. 292. judgment of the justice of the peace or magistrates' court and the person convicted shall suffer accordingly.

State's warrant to issue

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, in all cases of a violation of any of its provisions, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace or magistrates' court as shall be applied to for that purpose, forthwith to issue a warrant in the name of the State of Maryland, against any person charged with the violation of said act, in the same manner as State warrants are now issued; provided, that the party applying for such warrant shall make oath before some justice of the peace or magistrates' court, that of his or her own knowledge, or that he or she is informed and verily believes the person so charged has been guilty of the violation of this act.

Oath required

Repealing clause

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 292.

Passed Mar. 29, 1838.

An act relating to Chancery Proceedings.

Relative to trustees' bonds

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be necessary or required of any mortgagee or his assignees, in any proceedings in the courts of equity in this State, to foreclose any mortgage or obtain a sale of the mortgaged property for the payment of the mortgage debt, in any case where an infant shall be interested, to give bond as heretofore required by the provisions of the second section of the act passed at the November session of the General Assembly of this State, in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-five, chapter seventy-two, any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.