

CHAPTER 293.

CHAP. 276.

An act for the benefit of Ann Ennalls Harris, wife of William T. Harris. Passed Mar. 29, 1838

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, In relation to
That Daniel Cox Hopper Emory, be, and he is hereby Trusteeship constituted trustee of Ann Ennalls Harris, and successor of Cornelius Howard, who declines to act under the will of Mary Ward, mother of the said Ann; and that so soon as he shall have executed and delivered for record to the clerk of Dorchester county court, a bond to the State of Maryland, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as said trustee, under such penalty, in such form and with such security as, with the assent of the said Ann and her husband, either of the judges of the second judicial district of this State shall approve, the said Daniel may and shall have and exercise, as trustee aforesaid, all the authority, rights and powers, and shall perform all the acts and duties which the said Cornelius might, could or ought to have exercised or performed as trustee under the said will for the benefit of the said Ann, her children and heirs, if he had accepted the trust which the said will conferred on him.

CHAPTER 294.

An act to increase the allowance to the Sheriff of Washington County for keeping Debtors in Jail. Passed Mar. 29, 1838.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, $1 75 per week
That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the sheriff of Washington county to ask, demand and receive one dollar and seventy-five cents per week for each and every debtor committed to the jail of Washington county, for the time they may remain in said jail, to be paid according to the provisions of an act entitled an act to provide for the support and maintenance of debtors already confined in prison, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty, chapter one hundred eighty-six.