

CHAP. 297. George W. Brumwell, Daniel Roberson, Otho Shipley and John B. Snowden, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of John Weir, to wit: two houses and lots as the property of the said John Weir, and that after legal notice, he had sold, as per return, in the words following, to wit: laid as per schedule; sold to Thomas Carr, on the twenty-fifth day of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, for one hundred and eighty dollars; Henry Carter, constable; and whereas, it is further represented by the said petition, that before the said sale was ratified, the said Thomas Carr, who was considered the purchaser, died, and in as much as the property had not come into his possession, the heirs of the said Thomas Carr could not be compelled to pay the claims due to the said petitioners:— Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
That it shall be lawful for Joseph Steel, esquire, or any other justice of the peace in and for Carroll county, on copies of the said writs of fieri facias, and the return aforesaid, duly certified by the clerk of Baltimore county court, and under seal, to cause the same to be directed to the sheriff or to any constable of Carroll county, who thereupon shall have power to execute the said writs and re-sell the property, in the same manner as he could execute and sell in the case of an original writ of fieri facias; and when sold, it shall be the duty of said sheriff, or the said constable, as the case may be, under his official obligation, to deliver the money arising from such sale into the court of Carroll county, to be distributed by the judges of the said court to the persons entitled thereto, as in their judgment shall seem meet and proper.

Justice of the Peace authorised

Execute and re-sell

Pay over proceeds

Distribution