

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to provide for the erection of a Bridge over the Great Falls of Gunpowder, at Tyson's Mill in Baltimore County, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter one hundred and ninety-five.

Passed Mar. 29, 1838.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of Baltimore county, be, and they are hereby authorised and required at their next annual levy, to levy upon the assessable property of said county, any sum not exceeding eight hundred dollars, to be collected as other county charges are, and pay the same over to the commissioners authorised to build the Bridge, as provided by the act to which this is a supplement, if in their judgment any such additional sum be necessary for the building and completion of said bridge, and that the said bridge commissioners are hereby required to account to the commissioners of Baltimore county, for the faithful application of the money hereby authorized, to be applied to the building of said bridge, in the same manner as is provided by the act to which this is a supplement.

Levy directed
Collected and paid over
Account required

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of rendering it unnecessary for the people of Baltimore county, to apply to the legislature to pass special acts to authorize the building of any new bridge, or the repairing of any old bridge, in said county, as the case may be, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners whenever any application may be made to them for the purpose of building or repairing any bridge, as aforesaid, to decide whether the public convenience requires the same or not, according to the provisions of an act entitled, an act, to provide more effectually for the repairing and rebuilding of bridges in Baltimore county, and for other purposes, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter seventy-seven, and the said commissioners are hereby required to carry the provisions of said act fully into effect according to the true intent and meaning thereof.

To prevent future applications for bridges
County commissioners required to determine