

CHAP. 326. interest in said lot to the said William McMahon, and those legally claiming under him, unless the same be impeached by legal process, by any claiming under Anthony Reintzell, or unless the said lot be fully redeemed by the heirs, or some of them, of the said A. Reintzell, within one year from the passage of this act.

CHAPTER 326.

Passed Mar. 29, 1838. A supplement to an act for the benefit of the heirs of John Kimes, late of Allegany County, deceased.

Deed confirmed Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
 That the deed from Hannah Kimes, the trustee appointed by the act to which this is a supplement, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirteen, chapter fifty-four, to Thomas Beale of Samuel, his heirs and assigns, and which was executed and acknowledged by Martin Rizer, her attorney, on the eleventh September, eighteen hundred and fifteen, before two justices of the peace of Allegany county, and recorded in the clerk's office of said county, shall be as valid and effectual in law, to convey the estate of the said John Kimes, mentioned in said deed, of lot number two hundred and thirty-three, in the town of Cumberland, to the said Beale, his heirs and assigns, as if the said power of attorney had been executed, acknowledged and proven, as required by law, or as if the said Hannah Kimes had executed and acknowledged in person, the said deed, before two justices of the peace of Allegany county, or before one of the judges of Allegany county court.
