

said academy, and shall likewise be the judge of all paintings; and all other specimens of the arts, whether the same be by purchase or donation, must be approved by the said judge before they can be received into the said academy; the said professor of painting shall have the right to paint, as far as he is able and capable, or cause to be painted, all such paintings as the directors of said academy shall deem necessary to be painted for the said academy, for which service he will receive such compensation as the directors of the said academy shall deem right to award; and shall, Curator for the services that the bye-laws of the said corporation define for the curator to perform, receive for compensation, such per centum as shall be designated by the bye-laws aforesaid, of all the revenue of the said academy, arising from the members of the said academy, and from the admission into and use of the said academy for any purpose whatever. Compensation

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the bye-laws of the said corporation shall be subject to change and revision only every fifth year, at the regular annual meeting of the said academy, and such change or revision shall not be made unless by a majority of two-thirds of the full resident members thereof. Change of rules

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the board of directors, three of whom shall constitute a quorum, be empowered to fill up all vacancies which may occur in their body during the year; to employ, compensate and dismiss at pleasure, all agents and subordinate officers deemed by them necessary; to enter into contracts, and to use therefor the name and seal, or the name of the corporation, to make regulations for the transaction of their business, and to repeal the same at their discretion; to call meetings of the members as often as they shall deem proper, to whom they shall make report from time to time of their proceedings, and of the affairs of said corporation, and generally to exercise all the powers and privileges conferred on or appertaining to the said corporation; provided, the same be not incompatible with the ordinances passed as aforesaid by the members of the said academy; and Restrictions provided also, that the property of the said academy shall not be transferred, bargained and sold, mortga-