

shall cause the interest that will hereafter accrue, and that which has accrued since the day above mentioned, on the stock funded debt of this State, and which was made payable at the treasury or the loan office of this State, to be paid to the parties entitled to receive the same, either in coin or its equivalent value, to be determined in the manner aforesaid.

CHAP. 358.

CHAPTER 358.

An act for the benefit of the Heirs at law of David Moore. Passed Mar. 27, 1838.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Grafton L. Dulany, Joseph Wilkins and William G. Read, commissioners, appointed by the agreement of the parties in the case of Ewing and wife, versus, Moore and others, depending in the High Court of Chancery, to divide the estate of the late David Moore, or a majority of them, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to open and condemn, as public highways forever, all such streets, lanes and alleys, or such parts thereof within the bounds of said estate, and within the limits of the city of Baltimore, as they may deem advisable. May open streets, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if at any time hereafter any of the above mentioned streets, lanes or alleys shall be further opened and extended beyond the limits of the said estate, and any part or parts of the said estate shall be taxed for such opening or extension, then and in such case the proprietor or proprietors of any and every such part or parts so taxed shall be considered as entitled to one-half of the bed of the street immediately in front of such part or parts, and shall be entitled to damages for the taking of the same, in the same manner as he, she, or they might do if the said street were then to be first opened and made public. If further extended

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, to make a return, under their hands and seals, to the Mayor of the city of Baltimore, specifying what Title or damages